Congratulations Bill Graham (MBA ’86)!
Recipient of the 2016 Bryden Award

Bill Graham (MBA ’86) is the recipient of the 2016 Bryden Award for Distinguished Contribution to the advancement of York University’s Schulich School of Business and the enhancement of education through philanthropy. He is well-known for his generosity and support of the Entrepreneurship Awards. Bill is an entrepreneur and was the founder of the Toronto-based retail chain, Janice F. Graham, which he sold to his board of directors in 1997.

In addition to his philanthropic work, Bill is an active member of the Alumni Association and supports the school’s efforts in various ways. He is a member of the Dean’s Advisory Council and has received honours from the University, including the Lifetime Achievement Award in 2012.

The Gala includes a networking event, a dinner, and a speaker series. All proceeds from the event will go towards funding student initiatives at York University’s Schulich School of Business.
