

iBBA Delayed Entry Information Package Fall 2019

To be considered for admission, applicants must complete 30.00 credits at York University, as specified on the reverse side of this document. To be competitive, applicants should have an overall A-average in their first year of study. A supplementary application is also required to be considered for admission. Please note that meeting the minimum requirements does not guarantee an offer of admission.

Admission requirements and application procedures can be found on our website at www.schulich.yorku.ca/newbbaibba. The maximum transfer credit awarded is 30.00 credits. Students cannot be admitted to Schulich at any level higher than Year 2. York applicants who have additional years of post-secondary education (e.g. college/university) and are seeking advanced standing beyond first year of university, may wish to investigate other undergraduate degrees that may offer additional transfer credits and/or consider our graduate programs as a future option. For further details about graduate studies at the Schulich School of Business, please visit www.schulich.yorku.ca/programs or call (416) 736-5060.

The deadline to apply for Delayed Entry to the iBBA Program is March 13, 2019.

How to Apply

Current York University students who meet the requirements as outlined above must submit the iBBA Delayed Entry Application Form to Schulich Recruitment & Admissions (W263) in person or by e-mail (admissions@schulich.yorku.ca) no later than March 13, 2019.

The Supplementary Application – once available for the Fall 2019 admission cycle – can be accessed at www.schulich.yorku.ca/newbbaibba and must be submitted online by March 13, 2019.

Your academic record will be reviewed once final grades are received.

A York transcript is not required.

Summer Course Offerings

To minimize the number of Year 1 courses Delayed Entry students are required to complete when they enter the program (Year 2), Delayed Entry applicants who have submitted a satisfactory supplementary application and who present satisfactory final Fall / Winter 2018 York grades in the required prerequisite courses for which they were enrolled in Fall / Winter 2018, will be notified and given permission to enrol in SB/ACTG 2010 3.00 and SB/ACTG 2011 3.00 in the Summer term prior to Fall 2019 entry. Notification and enrolment permission does not indicate Delayed Entry acceptance to the iBBA program. See “Admission” section below for further details.

Admission

Delayed Entry applicants must achieve a minimum 'C' grade in SB/ACTG 2010 3.00 and SB/ACTG 2011 3.00 to be eligible for admission consideration. Limited spaces are available. Offers will be granted in August after a review of applicants' Year 1 academic records, including Summer 2019 courses. Admitted students may not switch the program to which they applied and were granted admission (i.e. if you were granted Delayed Entry Admission to the BBA, you may not switch to the iBBA).

Please contact 416-736-5081 or e-mail admissions@schulich.yorku.ca if you require clarification regarding course requirements.
