

Your

Transformative

Journey

Kellogg  Schulich

EXECUTIVE MBA GLOBAL NETWORK

What sets us apart

DIVERSE COHORTS

Interact with people from the widest possible range of backgrounds and experiences, expanding your horizons and enriching your knowledge for today’s complex environment.

AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP JOURNEY

Connect with accomplished leaders from business and society to explore how self-awareness, humility, integrity, and empowerment can help you lead with purpose and create a meaningful impact.

LIFE-LONG CONNECTIONS

As a student, forge lasting relationships with your cohort and the global network. As a graduate, become part of the alumni communities of Kellogg (Northwestern University) and Schulich (York University).

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULE

Combine your studies with family and work, learning step-by-step during the first part of the program and choosing your courses and their locations during the second.

REAL GLOBAL EXPERIENCES

Engage frequently with professors and peers from Kellogg and the other partner schools in Toronto and on their campuses. Complete your social impact capstone in Costa Rica or Tanzania.

CESAR LARA, EMBA ‘15 Chief Executive Officer, Valia Trading Corp.

The program was a life changing experience for me. It helped me transition from working for a company, to founding my own. Courses such as Strategy and Finance provided me with key insights that I applied to build and grow my company.

JENNIFER CHEN, EMBA ‘21 Head of Studios, VP of Content, Channel Zero

I have a global network of industry leaders and world-class professors whom I lean on regularly. It’s a testament to the enduring impact of the program, its network, and the engaging alumni events that I continue to advance in professional opportunities.

ARUN ACHARYA, EMBA ‘22 VP, Global Product Management, Mastercard

If continuous learning, professional development, opportunities for career progression and networking are important to you, then you can’t go wrong with the KS EMBA. It was a hands-on, transformative experience that greatly enhanced my leadership skills.

ANGELINE SMITH, EMBA ‘24 Strategist & Innovation Lead, Patient Support Services, Sanofi

Beyond the academic excellence, connections established, and meaningful friendships cultivated, the program challenged me to achieve the most significant personal and professional growth I’ve ever had in an 18-month period.

What the schedule looks like

YEAR 1 JANUARY TO OCTOBER

JANUARY

Launch Week: Introduction to Global Leadership

JULY

NO Classes, NO Deliverables

SEPTEMBER TO OCTOBER

2 Weekends: Responsible Leadership & Advanced Finance

FEBRUARY TO JUNE

6 Weekends: Business Fundamentals

AUGUST

Global Network Week at Kellogg: Negotiations & Crisis Management

YEAR 2 NOVEMBER TO MAY

NOVEMBER TO MAY

GLOBAL ELECTIVES: MAKE YOUR OWN SCHEDULE

Choose six courses at three locations in the US, Europe, Asia

Choose four courses in Toronto (offered to all partners)

Pick up to four extra elective courses (not included in the program fee)

Complete the social impact capstone in Costa Rica or Tanzania

Professors in both core and electives courses are from Schulich, Kellogg, our partners in the network, and other top schools.

Elective courses are offered in various formats: full week, two weekends, blended (online plus long weekend), fully remote. Except for the latter, they come either in pairs of two courses or as a single super-course.

Global electives locations

What to expect in the program

A SPECIAL AND VARIED COHORT

Each year the program brings together a unique group of students from many different sectors and functions with rich professional experiences, and fascinating life stories.

ALL-AROUND LEARNING AND INSPIRATION

According to their feedback, in the animated and eye-opening classroom discussions our students learn as much from each other as they do from our award-winning professors.

A COMMON ETHOS

Regardless of their different backgrounds and experiences, students and alumni of our program and the global network share a similar philosophy of ‘Low Ego, High Impact’.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

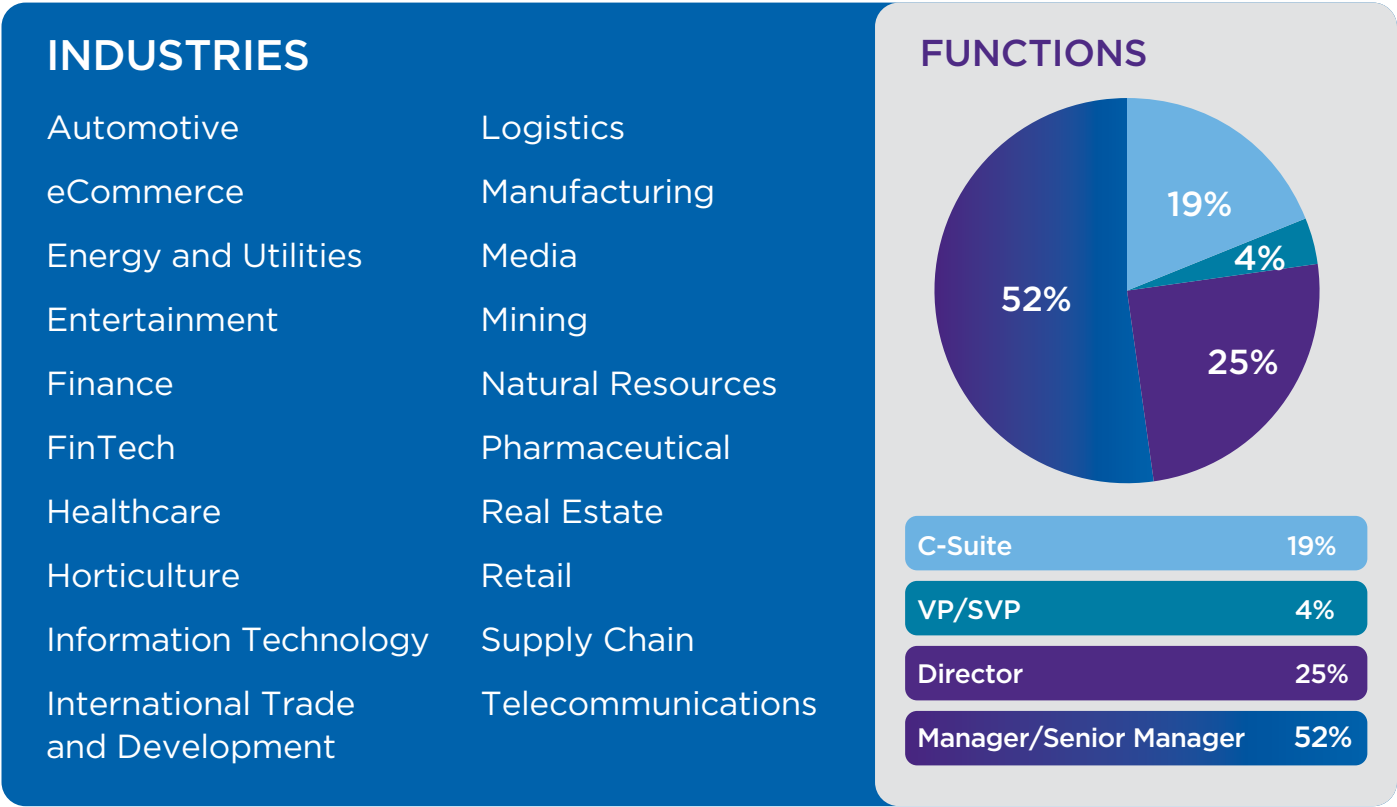

One way to put this into practice immediately is the capstone course Innovating for Social Impact, where students work with young entrepreneurs in Costa Rica or co-operatives in Tanzania.

FROM FIFTY TO FIVE HUNDRED

During the Global Network Week at Kellogg students from all network partner schools start building relationships that will continue during the global electives and last a lifetime.

Who is in the current cohort

Which electives can you choose

NOVEMBER

Shanghai (Week): Business Strategies for the Chinese Market, Marketing in China, Entrepreneurship and Innovation in China, Political Economy in China

DECEMBER

Lisbon (Long Weekend): International Finance & Strategic Brand Management

Hong Kong (Week): Understanding Consumer Psychology, Managing Emerging Technologies, Value Investing, Deal Making in China and Asia, Strategies for Sustainable Business Transformation

JANUARY

San Francisco (Week): Intelligent Products & Early-Stage Investing

Lisbon (Long Weekend): International Finance & Strategic Brand Management

JANUARY-FEBRUARY

Miami (2 Weekends): Global Corporate Restructuring (double course)

Chicago (2 Weekends): Advertising Strategy, Winning with Networks, Strategic Marketing Decisions, Visualization for Persuasion

Evanston & Boston (2 Weekends): Healthcare Strategy (double course)

FEBRUARY

Lisbon (Long Weekend): International Finance & Strategic Brand Management

Chicago (Week): Leading Organizational Transformation, Creating & Managing Strategic Alliances, Leading High Impact Teams, Fundamentals of Inclusive Leadership

FEBRUARY-MARCH

Boston & Evanston (2 Weekends): Healthcare Deep Dive (Healthcare Services or Biopharmaceuticals)

Miami (2 Weekends): Mergers & Acquisitions (double course)

MARCH

Miami (Week): Unlocking Executive & Enterprise Value with Generative AI, Selling Yourself and Your Ideas, Decision-Making Beyond Analytics, Success & Continuity in Family Enterprises, Launching and Leading Startups, Incentives, Strategy and Organization

Toronto (Long Weekend): Future Proofing Brands & Designing Brand Experiences

Shanghai (Week): Healthcare Strategy in China (double course)

London (Week): Designing, Building and Communicating Compelling New Ventures (double course)

APRIL

Miami (Week): Advanced Negotiations, Fintech and Society, Investment Banks, Hedge Funds and Private Equity, The World Economy, Strategy Beyond Markets, Human and Machine Intelligence

Toronto (Long Weekend): AI in Business and Society & AI in Practice

MAY

Vallendar (Week): Leveraging Collaboration for Innovation, Entrepreneurial Finance, Managing People for Competitive Advantage, Building an AI Powered Organization

Toronto (Week): Digital Strategy & M&A Strategy

In addition, there will be several remote courses, among others: Entrepreneurial Selling, International Real Estate, Non-profit Boards. Elective locations and courses are subject to change

KELLOGG
EVANSTON
USA

KELLOGG
MIAMI
USA

KELLOGG
WHU
VALLENDAR
GERMANY

KELLOGG
HKUST
HONG KONG
CHINA

KELLOGG
GUANGHUA
BEIJING
CHINA

What you need to join

A GOOD FIT AND AMBITION

We look for humble and visionary difference makers who have demonstrated both progress and positive impacts in their careers and aim to go further and achieve more, whether by growing in their current organization and sector, by eventually changing their context and role, or by starting their own business.

REQUIREMENTS

A recognized bachelor's degree from a Canadian university or an international equivalent. We generally do not ask for a GMAT or Executive Assessment.

A minimum of eight years of relevant work experience by the date the program starts.

A current position that involves substantive responsibilities (for people, projects, budgets, and/or client success), with several years in this or similar roles.

We can and do make exceptions from these criteria, for instance for people who have founded and successfully grown their own business or have taken alternative pathways to a position of responsibility.

TUITION

Our program is very competitively priced in a Canadian and international context. We nevertheless strongly encourage you to make sure you have the necessary funds to pay the program fee, which for the 2026-27 cohort is: CDN $113,219 (Canadian citizens or permanent residents) or CDN $143,412 (International), payable in instalments.

These fees are subject to change on an annual basis and include: tuition, required books and course materials, organized meals during class days at the Schulich School of Business, and organized meals and accommodation during the Launch Week at Schulich and required off-site courses (the Global Network Week at Kellogg, Global Electives, and the Capstone in Costa Rica or Tanzania).

Students are responsible for all associated travel costs, including to off-site modules.

The onsite hotel at Schulich offers stays at reduced rates during regular class weekends.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

There are several entrance awards that can help with your tuition: four Women in Leadership Awards ($10,000 each), four Leadership and Innovation Awards ($10,000 each), and the Franklin-Sasarmann-Simard Award for someone working in the public or not-for-profit sector ($20,000).

There are also two $5,000 awards allocated during the program: the Kellogg-Schulich Alumni Association (KSAA) Diversity & Inclusion Award and, the Igor Kim New Venture Award for a convincing start-up idea.

NEXT STEPS

Send your CV to emba@schulich.yorku.ca

Should your profile meet the requirements, we will invite you for a conversation. This conversation allows you to learn more about the program and allows us to determine whether you would truly benefit from joining it.

We would then invite you to formally apply, which involves some paperwork.

Once you submit the required documents, we usually make a formal admission decision within 24-48 hours.

For more details, please check see the Application Guide

What our alumni are saying

RACHEAL AWE, EMBA '17
Vice President, Chief of Staff to CEO at Canadian Tire
Canada's Most Powerful Women: WXN's Top 100

PATRICK DIAB, EMBA '23
Chief Product & Partnership Officer at Moneris

SIMON QUICK, EMBA '21
Chief Executive Officer at Canadian Copper Inc.

REA GANESH, EMBA '23
Vice President, Philanthropy at Scarborough Health Network Foundation

EXECUTIVE MBA GLOBAL NETWORK

FOR MORE INFO CONTACT EMBA@SCHULICH.YORKU.CA