Notes:

1. Exchange students can choose any course from any program in the list, and need to pay attention to the prerequisites and work experience note.
2. One contact hour corresponds to 45-minute classroom period. Please consult with your home academic advisor about the credit conversion.
3. Class time is indicated in Beijing Time (UTC+8). Please pay attention to the time difference if you are taking the course through online.
4. Courses marked as Chinese-taught can only accept exchange students with high level of proficiency in Mandarin language. Students whose native language is not Mandarin need to present language proficiency proof in order to get admitted to such courses. If any questions, please contact Shaoyu, the exchange coordinator.
5. Courses marked as online or hybrid may be switched to in-person only, as faculty members living abroad are still planning their visit to Shanghai after the quarantine policy was completely lifted after January 8. Students should be aware of this possibility, and are strongly encouraged to join Spring 2023 exchange in-person.
6. Most MBA courses expect students to have a handful of work experience. If a student is enrolled in pre-experienced master program at home school, please consult Shaoyu for course selection suggestions.
7. The average course load for exchange students is between 3 and 5 courses. We do not have minimum course requirement, and exchange students can choose 7 courses at maximum.
8. The cost of textbooks is not included in tuition. Students should purchase their own copies.
9. Class participation is mandatory and is part of the course grade. Students are required to inform the TA or the professor prior to the class if they will be absent.
10. According to the guidelines for class adjustment and cancellation policy, FDSM reserves the right to cancel courses that fail to meet the enrollment minimum.
11. The Student Code of Conduct applies to any student enrolled in a course at FDSM, including exchange students. The School may take disciplinary action against a student who violates academic rules and regulation.
12. Official transcripts are issued approximately 6 to 8 weeks following the end of the term. One copy of the official transcript will be sent to student's home coordinator.
