Course Information

Incoming exchange students will have the opportunity to take four elective courses covering a range of business topics. These electives will be taken alongside our Full Time, on-campus cohort but also with Global MBA students studying at one of our five Global Centres around the world. Electives are taught in a “blended” format with a majority of content delivered online and in-person group work occurring in the form of 3-day workshops at Alliance Manchester Business School. This “blended” format allows incoming exchange students to build a truly global network of professional peers, as GMBA students typically bring an average of 10 years work experience into our programme.

Several weeks prior to in-person workshops, students are given access to a study guide on Blackboard, our online Learning Environment, which navigates them through the course materials and prepares them for face-to-face workshops in Manchester.

There are typically two assessments for each elective course -- one taking the form of a group assignment at the in-person workshop and another assessment due following the workshop.

Below are lists of electives being offered in the 2023/24 Academic Year.

Students may also choose from a selection of “accelerated” 2 month electives for their exchange experience. Two month electives commence on 1st October 2024, with taught classes delivered (provisionally) from 28th October to 5th November.

The PROVISIONAL list of electives for this session is as follows:

- Corporate News and Shareholder Value

Students will take these elective courses alongside our FT 2nd year MBA and Global MBA cohorts.

Core course options

In addition to the aforementioned electives, exchange students can also choose from among the “Core” options below when selecting their four courses. It should be emphasised, however, that these courses are part of the 1st Year Core requirements for Manchester MBA students and have several in-person classes and assessed presentations throughout the months of September through December. As such, exchange students will need to be based in Manchester and should verify whether their home institution will accept such courses:

Leading and Managing in a Global Environment (A)

Leading and managing in today's global business environment is complex. This course will provide you with analytical tools to critically evaluate the globalised economy from a cultural, political and economic perspective. You will explore major management issues and develop an understanding of the social context of businesses.

Not for Profit (NfP) Project

This live consultancy project with a not-for-profit organisation is a practical task. It will broaden your perspective and put you in new and challenging environments. As part of the course, you will have the opportunity to work in a multinational team with fellow students, giving you a good introduction to consultancy with real, demanding clients. At the end of term, NfP groups get together for an official celebration event to recognise the impact they've had on local businesses.

Operationalizing & Communicating Value

This course will provide you with key knowledge about operations management and marketing. We will encourage you to consider the interactions and potential tensions between these areas, and to critically evaluate the application of theory to real-life contexts. You will work in multinational groups to develop solutions to marketing and operations management challenges.

Full Time Workload

Courses are 15 credits, as is the Not for Profit Project. Each 15 credit course is weighted at 22.5 hours teaching, and we estimate approximately 3 hour's self-study time for each hour spent in the classroom. Choice of courses is student-led, and the School reserves the right not to run a particular elective if there is insufficient demand. Some electives may also specify maximum numbers. Early registration is recommended but does not guarantee a place.

Assessment

Classes are assessed by various methods including cases, group work (reports/presentations), and individual work. All courses are graded out of 100%. A minimum score of 50% is required in order to pass at the MBA level. It is mandatory for students to be available and on-campus in Manchester up until the end of face-to-face teaching.
