Spanish Course: We also offer a Spanish Course for those foreign students who wish to learn or strength their Spanish skills. 4 hours per week. Only available in Mexico City campus.

WE STRONGLY ADVISE EXCHANGE STUDENTS
TO INQUIRE ABOUT IMMIGRATION
REQUIREMENTS BEFORE ARRIVING IN MEXICO

STUDENT VISA

To verify the visa requirements, visit the webpage of the Mexican embassy in your home country. If a visa is not required, you can stay in the country no more than 180 days only with your passport.

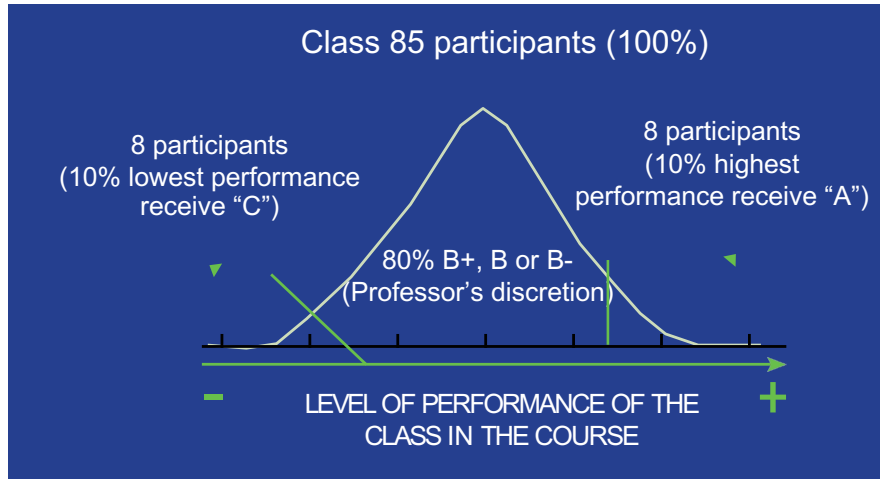

In case you require visa, IPADE will assist you with the acceptance letters or any other document you need to prove your legal stay in Mexico. Consider that the Mexican visa application usually takes some time, and you'll need to gather different requirements or present a hard-copy of the acceptance letter.

The visa and immigration requirements are external to IPADE. The institution can't intervene in the visa process.

DRESS CODE

Business casual attire every day. For special occasions, a suit or dress must be worn. No tank tops, sandals, shorts, mini-skirts, ripped jeans, shorts, sweatpants, and slippers are allowed. Cultural and religious garments will be embraced.

DAILY SCHEDULE

Classes are based on 100-minute teamwork discussion, and 80-minute sessions. The Typical day schedule is from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. Monday to Friday classes. Each exchange participant will have different schedules depending on her/his own course selection.

ON CAMPUS SERVICES

Library - Cafeteria - Chaplaincy - Parking - La Posta: Bookstore and souvenirs - IT Services - ATM (only in Mexico City campus) - Medical Services - Fitness Area

HEALTH INSURANCE

It's mandatory for all exchange students to have an insurance policy. The students can either contract a policy on their own, or ask for information to buy a policy with a company suggested by IPADE.

Considerations of the Insurance Policy:

- It must be obtained before the arrival in Mexico.
- It must be valid for the entire exchange term.
- It needs to have coverage in Mexico.
- It should include medical diagnosis and treatment, preventive medicine, hospitalization, surgery and transplants, dental care, first aid, transportation to a hospital or clinic, medical equipment and appliances, treatment of chronic diseases, and repatriation.

HOUSING

There is no available on-campus housing. The International Office will provide a housing list. There are different housing options from complete apartments to shared homes near campus. Additional assistance and information can be provided to find the best alternative in Mexico City and Monterrey.

COST OF LIVING EXPENSES*

Housing: From 300 to 900 USD depending on the property, basic services like internet, electricity, gas, and water might be included.
Transportation, food, entertainment, various services: 300 USD.
Miscellaneous: 100 USD.

*Estimated monthly costs

DURING WINTER, TEMPERATURE IN MEXICO CITY AND MONTERREY CAN POSSIBLY REACH 0°C/32°F UP TO 15°C/59°F SO MAKE SURE TO BRING THE PROPER ATTIRE.

ONE PROGRAM, TWO CAMPUSES

Exchange students can live the MBA experience in one of the Mexican cities where IPADE is located:

MEXICO CITY

About the city

A cosmopolitan metropolis, the largest Spanish-speaking city in the world. Located in the center of Mexico, this city is one of the most important spots for financial, cultural, and economic activities in the Americas.

MONTERREY

About the city

Monterrey is the 3rd largest city, and the 2nd largest industrial center in Mexico. It is the city with the highest per-capita income in the country. Main city in the northern of Mexico and influential gateway for business with the USA.

EXPERIENCE FROM INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

“At IPADE, you don’t really feel you are out of your country. You feel that you are home. You have people who are always there to help you”.

HENRY MANUEL GARCÍA
Alumni from the USA

“I believe that (IPADE) is one of the best decisions I’ve done so far. IPADE has given me a lot of useful tools and I’ve learned a lot more about Mexican culture”.

BENJAMIN SCHOTKE
Alumni from GERMANY

“We have to figure out how to manage a company in every class, which gives us a broad understanding of the business world”.

JAGODA DUDAREWICZ
Alumni from POLAND

“You’ll do a lot of business cases. Day by day you realize you’re learning a lot. And you will see yourself transformed as a person”.

PULASTYA BASU
Alumni from INDIA

LIVING IN MEXICO

Between ancient cenotes covered in mystical legends, colonial cities that lead you to travel through time or beautiful beaches with turquoise waters, few are the destinations in the world that can boast a vast cultural and historical heritage.
